

NOWAR Operation Glove – Model Drugs Detective

Policemen, Officials of Justice and Courts get in situations that they have to make bag or pocket controls. The officials can be easily injured by a needle of a mainliner when checking the bag or pocket. The risk of an Aids-Infection is very high.

Our Model Drugs Detective is a knit-glove made of black, cut resistant Kevlar. The palm is patched with handy Nappa leather. The fingertips are immersed in nitrile. This offers a further protection against needle stitches. The risk of an infectious disease can be considerably minimized.
