

ops-core® FAST – Ballistic Helmet

ops-core® manufacture cutting-edge products and components integral to equipment used by the military and sporting goods industries. The human brain, eyes and ears are highly evolved to sense and react instantaneously. Yet with the advent of new technologies to enhance these senses and increase awareness, today's soldier has been burdened by an excessive amount of equipment to carry on the head. Traditional military helmets were never intended for this purpose and therefore provide a "solution" that is uncomfortable, unstable and often compromises the very senses it is trying to protect.

The ops-core® FAST ballistic helmet has the same amount of head coverage and size as a MICH 2002 "GUN-Fighter" model. The FAST helmet shell is made from Carbon and UHMWPE, a result of 20% weight reduction. The FAST helmet is lightweight, multi-impact, has ventilated liner with repositionable EPP impact pads and LDV closed-cell comfort foam that is not affected by temperature, altitude or moisture. The integrated Head-Loc chinstrap retention system gives helmet 4x more stability than standard issue ACH helmet suspension / retention products. The FAST helmet comes with standard MARSOC / WARCOM 3-hole pattern and allows to mount the ops-core® VAS Shroud (sold separately), so the FAST helmet is compatible with front mount visors, flashlights and other visual enhancement devices.
